

Český Krumlov, March 15, 2010

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

The Baroque Theatre Foundation of Český Krumlov Castle, in cooperation with The National Institute of Historical Monument Care and Castle Administration, is announcing the ninth year of the International Conference “The World of Baroque Theatre”

The Conference will be held in the Český Krumlov Castle on Friday–Sunday, June 4–6, 2010.

The main topics of this year’s conference are:

- “Private Theaters of 17th–19th Century”,
- “Garden as Theatre” and
- “Conservation and Documentation of Historic Theatres”.

For details see attached preliminary program (which, of course, is subject of change).

As became usual, the Conference consists of lectures translated to Czech or English, Friday Baroque evening including experimental performance in the Baroque Castle Theatre (1767) and baroque festivities in the castle garden, guided tour of the Castle Theatre and other castle interiors, or visit of summer house Bellaria in the castle garden.

Included is an exhibition of stage decorations and costumes at the Castle Theatre Museum. The participants usually appreciate the friendly atmosphere, discussions and attractive location of the Conference.

The Conference fee is 150 Eur (students and seniors 100 Eur), payed in advance or at the beginning of the Conference.

We hope you would be interested in the Conference. In case you decide to attend it, please fill attached form and send by May 7, 2010. The number of participants is limited.

Looking forward to meeting you in Český Krumlov,

Sincerely Yours,

Pavel Slavko
Executive of Baroque Theatre Foundation
